Chicago Heights, Illinois
Burial Listings, Plot Numbers

How to use this guide;

Bloom Presbyterian Cemetery is in two sections with two separate plot maps.

The first and older section is titled Bloom Presbyterian Cemetery.

The second newer section was from land donated in 1930 with a separate entrance along 21st Street. This section was named “Resthaven” and has it's own map.

We had to add an “R” after plot numbers for those who were buried in the Resthaven section. We had discovered both sections had identical plot numbers.

Burials are listed by last name alphabetically. We then added birth and death years when possible. The Plot map only indicates burial years and first initials but not for all burial plots. After photographing every stone in the cemetery we added a yes to those listings that have a grave marker. Should you request a picture or have questions please contact us.

Please help us add missing information to our guide.

When submitting new information please provide us with your source information whenever possible. Include the name(s) as we have it entered and the plot number(s).
